

A diverse, independent, and competitive media infrastructure is America's best hope for the free flow of information that is so vital to an informed electorate. I am very opposed to any rules that will allow or encourage consolidation of our media outlets and, thereby, inevitably limit the information available to us. Please exercise your authority on behalf of a free flow of information and do not allow further consolidation of media outlets.

Thank You For Your Service,
James W. Knight